The bill offered by our Representative in the Legislature, Hon. M. D.
Bearden, providing for an Insane Asylum in East Tennessee, is in the interest of an unfortunate class of our humanity and ought to become a law, but the chances are against its passage.

THE MORRISTOWN Gazette speaks of those members of the Legislature who wanted to censure Rev. Dr. Hoyt for preaching about public honesty as "ridiculous asses," with "stupid intellect." No "epithets," brother Helm. Come, "let us reason together."

We were correct in our statement yesterday that it appeared to be the desire of several members of the Knoxville bar to have Roane county attached to this Circuit, provided the bill redistricting the Judicial Circuits becomes a law. An effort is being made to accomplish that result, as we were told by Knoxville lawyers yesterday.

INDICATIONS: For Tennessee and the Ohio Valley—Generally colder and clear or fair weather except a light snow in the eastern portion of the Ohio Valley during the night, winds mostly from the north to the west and rising barometer, followed in the western portion by falling barometer and rising temperature.

THE revival in the iron trade is an encouraging sign of the times. The New York Tribune says:
The price of iron is said to have advanced fifty cents a ton in Pennsylvania within a week, and the production of certain mills is sold for months ahead, so that further orders have been declined. According to the Philadelphia Record, the demand is so great that producers say that they could sell five tons for every one they are turning out. One mill has declined during the past few days orders for nearly 20,000 tons. Orders for several thousand tons of iron rails are in the Philadelphia market, while large sales have been made of sheet-iron, and the demand for bar-iron is very strong. The orders for heavy machinery are greater than for several years past.

The Pigeon Shooting.

The pigeon match by the Knoxville Sporting Association at their grounds at the northern terminus of the street railway, attracted quite a crowd of spectators yesterday, and some very fine marksmanship was witnessed.
The match was participated in by the following gentlemen: Frank W.
Armstrong, F. H. McClung, Jr., S. B.
Dow, E. S. McClung, J. C. Duncan, C. S. Newman, of Knoxville, and Capt. W. H. Kirk, of Maryville.
After a heated and excited match the first prize, a handsome china dinner set, worth $55, was borne off by Frank Armstrong.
Frank McClung won the second prize, twenty dollars.
The third was taken by S. B. Dow, and the fourth by E. S. McClung.
The judges were Messrs. C. C. Mc-Carty and Sam. W. Paxton, with Mr.
H. B. Branner as referee.

Sundry Bills Pass Both Houses at Nashville on Third Reading.

Legislative Committee to Visit Knoxville Next Saturday.

NASHVILLE, Feb. 26, 1879.
Special to the Chronicle.

SENATE.—A bill was introduced to repeal the city charter of Greeneville. The following House bills were passed on third reading:

To change the time for holding courts in Union county; to reduce the salary of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction to $1,994; to repeal the act authorizing Blount county to subscribe stock to railroads; to exclude persons outside of the State from bringing suits against citizens of the State under pauper's oath; to exempt parsonages from taxation; to make Thompson and Steger's Code the official Code of the State.

Senate bill making it a misdemeanor for one person to wantonly kill the animal of another passed on its third reading.

The Senate will go into Committee of the Whole on Saturday to discuss five bills on the State debt question.

HOUSE.—The following bills were introduced in the House: To repeal the charter of Maryville; to convey to the heirs of Andrew Jackson the perpetual use of the Hermitage property.

Senate bill to authorize banking institutions to increase the number of their Directors, and House bill giving time for the completion of unfinished railroads, passed on their third reading.

Representatives Mahoney, Mc-Gaughy, Anderson, Driver, Daggan, Jones and McCabe will leave here Friday morning to inspect State institutions at Knoxville.

XLV CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.
The Vice President laid before the Senate the credentials of Hon.
Nathaniel P. Hill, elected Senator from Colorado, which were read and placed on file.

Senator Edmunds, of Vermont, in accordance with a resolution in the Senate, adopted some days since, reported a bill to further protect the constitutional rights of citizens and to punish violators of the same. The bill was placed on the calendar.

The Senate discussed the bill making appropriations to pay the claims allowed by the Southern Claims Commission until the expiration of the morning hour, when it was laid aside without action, and the Senate resumed the consideration of the Deficiency Appropriation bill. A lengthy discussion ensued upon the amendment appropriating $250,000 to supply the deficiencies of the Department of Justice, the payment of Deputy Marshals, &c.

The bill to amend the Revenue laws was presented, agreed to and the bill passed. There were three amendments by the Senate to which the House disagreed. The first was that striking out the clause, "if the House bill providing that any person who rectifies, purifies, refines or manufactures less than 5,000 barrels of proof spirits a year shall pay one hundred dollars." The House conferees insisted upon this clause and the Senate conferees acceeded, leaving it in the bill. The next disagreement was in regard to Lucifer matches. The committee agreed to retain the tax so that it remained as under the existing law.
The third disagreement was upon the amendments of the Senate in regard to the taxation of savings banks. These amendments were agreed to by the committee and remain in the bill.

The Senate resumed the consideration of the Deficiency Appropriation bill, the pending question being on the amendment of the Committee on Appropriations, to appropriate $250,000 for defraying the expenses of the courts of the United States, and for defraying the expenses incurred under the enforcement act. This amendment was the subject of an earnest discussion, in which all the leading Democratic Senators to part, denouncing the action of the Department of Justice in employing Deputy Marshals and other subordinate officials for partisan purposes as entire unwarranted. Ultimately, the amendment was adopted and the bill was finally passed.

During the discussion Senator Bayard remarked that the election law had been administered in the interest of one political party, and not in the interest of justice. There could be nothing more dangerous than the overthrow of law under the pretence of enforcing law. He denounced the test oath law, and said he did not believe that Congress would adjourn until that law was repealed.

Pending the motion to take up the Geneva Award bill, the Senate took recess until evening to consider the bills on the calendar.

HOUSE.

A session has been ordered for to-morrow night for reports from the Committee on Ways and Means. The House is in Committee of the Whole on the Senate census bill, which has been so amended as to vest the appointment of supervisors in the President and with the consent of the Senate.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The Committee of Conference on the Internal Revenue bill have agreed to report reconciling the disagreements of the two houses on all con-troverted points. By the terms of this report the Senate is to recede from the clause relating to rectifiers, the House of Representatives from the proposed abolition of the tax on matches, and a compromise is effected on the savings bank section by providing that it shall not apply to National banks.

The bill reported by Mr. Edmunds to-day from the Committee on the Judiciary to protect the constitutional rights of citizens, punishes with fine and imprisonment any person or persons who seek by intimidation, unlawful menace or any other unlawful means, to prevent the peaceful assembling of citizens for the purpose of petitioning Congress for redress of grievances, or considering the subject of the nomination or choice of any person to be a member or delegate of the House of Representatives, or who shall break up or disturb any such assembly, or prevents any citizen from exercising the right of suffrage. Persons or officers charged with any duty under this act, who refuse or knowingly omit to give the full effect to their duties, shall forfeit $500 to the aggrieved party.
Every person who shall cast an unlawful vote or ballot is to be punished by a fine of $5,000 or by imprisonment, not more than five years, or both. Assault and bribery are to be visited with a fine of $1,000 or imprisonment, not more than two years, or both.

Nominations: Walter S. Cox, of Washington, to be Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia; L. S. Metcalf, to be Appraiser of Merchandize at St. Louis; Peter A. Williams, United States Marshal for the Southern District of Florida; Dennis Eagan, Collector of Internal Revenue for Florida; Theo. F.
Singer, Receiver of Public Money.

NEW JERSEY.

TRENTON, Feb. 25.—The Supreme Court met here this morning. Immediately on opening Attorney General Stockton presented the case of Graham, accomplice of Hunter in the murder of Armstrong in Camden county. He held that Graham was used by the State, and without his testimony the State could have made no case against Hunter, and on the principles of justice, as well as precedent, he should not be prosecuted. The court reserved its decision.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Andrew Mack was arrested by the United States Marshal to-day, charged with having in his possession articles smuggled from Germany, and also with manufacturing cigars without giving bonds. It is reported that other and important arrests will soon follow and a well developed system of smuggling in the European line of steamers will be exposed.

MINOR DISPATCHES.

Boston, Feb. 26.—Miss Reynolds, who attempted to walk 3,000 quarter miles in 3,000 quarter hours, after completing 794 quarter miles, withdrew at two o'clock this morning and the contest was given up.

Baltimore, Feb. 26.—Very unexpectedly all the election cases assigned for trial to-day for the viclation of laws at the last Congressional election were postponed. They will come up on the 10th of March before Judge Bond.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—A large fire occurred to-day on Market street, Manchester, the principal thoroughfare. The damage is estimated at £100,000.

Prince Louis Napoleon has written a letter to M. Rouher, announcing his intention to join the British forces at Cape. He says: "For the last eight years I have been the guest of England. My education was completed in the English military school. I have strengthened my ties of friendship with the English army by taking part in its annual maneuvers. The war at Cape navigating assumed a more serious character, I have wished to follow the campaign. I could not refrain from sharing the dangers and fatigues of the troops among whom I have so many friends. Moreover, the time spent, in witnessing this struggle of civilization against barbarism will, not be wasted for me."

District Attorney for East Tennessee.
Washington Special to Cincinnati Commercial.

Congressman Thornburgh, of East Tennessee, is warmly pressing Wheeler, of Chattanooga, for District Attorney for that section, but opposition comes from Knoxville, from Congressman-elect Houk, and others. There are two factions in the Republican party at Knoxville, and they are never able to agree about anything. Wheeler will be nominated for the position, however.
